

International Open Access Week
Seminar

“Designing equitable open access foundations for social justice”

Date: 24 October 2018, 13h30-16h00
Venue: Hlanganani Junction, COL, Upper Campus

Speaker	Topic	Time
Michelle Willmers (CILT)	Welcome	13h30 – 13h40
Prof. Caroline Ncube (Law Faculty)	Opening	13h45 – 13h55
Prof. Penny Andrews (Law Faculty)	Constitutional Law open textbook project: Reconceptualising the delivery of teaching material [virtual presentation]	14h00 – 14h15
Jill Claassen (UCT Libraries)	Social Justice and Open Access	14h20 – 14h30
Lena Nyahodza (UCT Libraries)	Voices from UCT communities	14h35 – 15h30
Wandile Dlamini	Student voice: Negative impact of unaffordable cost of textbooks
Zuleikha Abrahams	Student voice: Lived experiences and challenges to accessing information
Ike Nwanze (Disability Studies Division)	Academic voice: Accessibility of information for students with disabilities
	>> Question and Answer Session
Dr Glenda Cox (Centre for Innovation in Learning and Teaching)	Digital Open Textbooks for Development: Research and implementation to advance equitable access at UCT	15h35 – 15h50
Dr Reggie Raju (UCT Libraries)	Closing remarks	15h50 – 15h55